TRANSITIONAL DEACON

Question: What is a transitional deacon?

Answer: There are two types of deacons in the church. Both are members of the clergy. Both have the same liturgical role. Both have the service of the community as their primary work. One is called a permanent deacon, usually a married man ordained as a deacon with no intention of becoming a priest. They preach, baptize, witness marriages, conduct funeral services, and look after the needs of the poor. They also visit the sick and take Communion to them, although they cannot celebrate the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. They might also assist the pastor in his administrative duties. Permanent deacons are usually well known and respected in their communities and have roots there.

A transitional deacon is one who functions as a deacon for a period of time prior to ordination as a priest. His diaconate assignment serves as a kind of internship of ordained ministry. During his year or two as a deacon, he will learn the practical aspects of parish life, getting a firsthand look at the life of a priest. His work has a different focus than a permanent deacon in that he is looking forward to ordination as a priest.

DIÁCONO TRANSITORIO

Pregunta: ¿Qué es un diácono de transición?

Respuesta: Hay dos tipos de diáconos en la iglesia. Ambos son miembros del clero. Ambos tienen el mismo papel litúrgico. Ambos tienen el servicio de la comunidad como su trabajo principal. Uno se llama a diácono permanente, generalmente un hombre casado ordenado como diácono sin intención de convertirse en sacerdote. Predican, bautizan, presencian matrimonios, llevan a cabo servicios funerarios y se ocuparon de las necesidades de los pobres. También visitan a los enfermos y llevan la comunión a ellos, aunque no pueden celebrar el sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos. También podrían ayudar a la pastor en sus funciones administrativas. Los diáconos permanentes suelen ser bien conocidos y respetados en sus comunidades y tienen raíces allí.

Un diácono de transición es aquel que funciona como un diácono por un período de tiempo antes de la ordenación como sacerdote. Su asignación diaconada sirve como una especie de pasantía del ministerio ordenado. Durante su año o dos como diácono, aprenderá los aspectos prácticos de la vida parroquial, obteniendo una mirada de primera mano a la vida de un sacerdote. Su trabajo tiene un enfoque diferente al de un diácono permanente en el que está deseando ordenación como sacerdote.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 8, 2021
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The lens through which we view life makes a difference. It also determines who we choose to learn from and what we allow to shape our thoughts and feelings. For many, life is simply what it appears to be, a given that either through evolution or some other means just came to be. There is no apparent rhyme or reason to things and things can be dissected and understood only in terms of what they empirically present. To the person using this lens, a tree is a tree and a flower is a flower. Their composition and existence can be understood only to the extent that current human knowledge allows. Through this lens, what gives life purpose and meaning? This lens has an essentially unknown beginning and definite end. Once those are accepted, the middle becomes some kind of pursuit of happiness, with values and principles being things that are self-created and found acceptable.

But there is a Divine lens that also exists and deserves mention. It is found when one stumbles upon faith and begins to see things differently. This lens is of God and reveals a Divine Energy and Life that flows through and in all things. Faith then shows us that all that lives come from this one Source of Love. This is the only true lens that can give human beings the purpose and meaning they desperately need. From this perspective, all of life is much more than what is immediately apparent! It now tells and reveals a story about God generous, creative, and unconditional love! The unfolding of the human story is the unfolding of God's story. What meaning our lives have when they are viewed as a part of God's love affair with humanity! We are indeed special.

The lens of our faith asks us to learn from Jesus Christ. Jesus, as the real Bread of Life, shows us our eternal destiny and completes and frames our lives. It is only in allowing ourselves to be taught by Jesus, that faith, hope, and love take on much greater importance. All the relationships in our lives are now structured and ordered using God's primary commandment of love. Jesus, then, is not just some man who lived at some point in history. Jesus is the incarnate Son of God who shows us the way, the truth, and the life. Using this lens changes things up a great deal. Looking at the creation that surrounds you and the special unique people you love, what is God trying to teach you about His love for you and the eternal life He wants you to have?
