SUMMER VACATION

The summer vacation season is upon us, a time when many of us find ourselves on the road in search of rest and recreation. This is good. This is healthy. We all need a break from our regular routines in order to feel refreshed and rejuvenated. There is so much to see of God's endless variety of beautiful mountains, rivers, lakes, forests and seashores.

One thing to remember while away from home—while we may be on vacation, we are still obligated to celebrate where the closest Catholic church is, you can check www.masstimes.org. This website provides the names, addresses and Mass schedule for churches and shrines across the country.

Attending Mass at a church away from home can offer a familiar feel to distant places. While some churches may have greeters at church doors to welcome people and other churches may encourage quiet arrival in preparation for Mass, the main elements to every Mass are the same. This can be a comfort to those visiting from afar.

The differences in Mass celebrations can be interesting. Some ethnic parishes may have music that is different from what you experience at home. Most priests have their own style of presenting a homily, which can offer new perspectives on the Scripture of the Eucharistic celebration.

So enjoy your time away, but be sure that you include Sunday Mass in your travel plans.

Peace be with you.
